CORPORATE ART ADVISORY SERVICES

Finding and installing fine art is simplified by Rockwell Art & Framing

At Rockwell Art and Framing we listen. We find it. We frame it. We hang it.

At Rockwell Art and Framing, we understand that selecting artwork is not your primary business. However, your clients repeatedly ask for your assistance with fine art decisions. This can be a frustrating and time consuming process.

To assist you in this dilemma of becoming both an expert in your profession and an art expert, Rockwell offers a complete art solution consulting service. We take the guesswork out of your hands so you can focus on your business deliverables to the client. As your consultant we work with your client as partners in developing and executing an art plan.

Our goal is to enhance your clients' business environment with works of superior craftsmanship and breathtaking beauty. We have relationships with accomplished local artists, photographers and sculptors and we also have the ability to commission our artists to create special pieces made to architectural specifications to add the finishing touch to any space.
